WINE MENU

Red	Per Glass 175ml	Bottle 75cl
Arauco Carmenère Cabernet Sauvignon	£6.00	£22.00
This Carmenère and Cabernet Sauvignon blend is full of rich, ripe blackcurrant fruit tempered by hints of spice. This combines with a rounded, velvety texture and a smooth finish.
Vilarissa Valley	-----	£24.00
Packed with luscious ripe red fruit and spice with hints of violet and plush ripe tannins. Rich and warming. An exceptional red from Portugal's Douro.
Tenuta Fenice Nero d'Avola	£6.25	£23.00
A sumptuously rich, blackberry spice red using Sicily's prized Nero d'Avola. It's from mature vineyards halfway between the coast and the high hills of Salemi.
Le Champ des Etoiles Pinot Noir 2020	£7.00	£27.00
Mark Hoddy's pure expression of Pinot Noir, not from Burgundy, but lush from the Languedoc. It offers all the charming silky red fruit and scent of Burgundy's Pinot Noir without paying the earth. Silky raspberry, black cherry and spice with earthy, leafy hints.
Maison Dominique Piron Beaujolais-Villages	-----	£28.00
This juicy, fruit filled 2020 is the true taste of a quality Beaujolais from a 14th generation producer. Lovely depth and intensity, packed with juicy flavour and a suppleness rarely found in other reds.
Opi Reserve Malbec	£8.00	£30.00
Velvety Malbec - the oak-aged, old-vine Reserve edition from Argentina's trophy-winning Opi Sadler. Intense and velvety, mulberry, plum, cassis, smoky oak and spice, long smooth finish.
Tyrrell's Blacksmith's Hut Shiraz	-----	£31.00
This is an impressive 90-point, inky black Shiraz. It is from premium, cool climate Heathcote, the soils of which bring a characteristic lift of white pepper spice to the intense fruit.
Familia Martinez Bujanda Reserva 2015	£8.75	£33.00
Innovative, cutting edge masters of their art, the Martínez Bujanda family don't compromise on quality; it shows in their huge haul of awards. Their inspired winemaker, Antonio Orte, has excelled with this fine Gold-medal Reserva, now in its prime. Smooth with rich strawberry and layered with sweet-scented spices.
Domaine de Mourchon Séguret Tradition Côtes du Rhône Village	-----	£34.00
High above the tiny village of Séguret in the Rhône Valley sits Domaine de Mourchon. Full-bodied, creamy and lush in the mouth, yet it remains lively, energetic and long on the finish.
Rapaura Springs Marlborough Pinot Noir Reserve	-----	£40.00
Rapaura Springs is a top drawer winery with many accolades under their belt. This Reserve Pinot Noir has suave berry fruit seasoned with elegant spice.
Il Poeta Barolo	-----	£47.00
Grape grower Natale Seghesio is known for the flavourful grapes he produces in the premium Piedmont hills. Aged over three years in oak barrels, the wine is complex, deeply flavoured and silky.
Création d'Émilie Châteauneuf-du-Pape	-----	£59.00
This is a voluptuous red from an 18th century family and 7th generation winemaker, Emilie. Velvety with lush, ripe black fruit, a rich wrap of spice and a lingering herbal finish.
Château Haut-Brisson	-----	£65.00
All of Haut Brisson's top grapes go into this wine (they no longer make La Réserve), ageing 30% of it in new French barriques, so as not to overwhelm the fruit with oak notes. Now certified organic, with the aim of going biodynamic too. Spicy black fruit preserves, framed by soft tannins and a racy backbone of freshness.

Port	Per Glass 75ml	Bottle 75cl
Averys Late Bottled Vintage Port	£7.95	£45.00
Ready for drinking, it boasts lavish flavours of deep cherry, berry and chocolatey spice.

Dessert Wine	Per Glass 75ml	Bottle 375ml
L'épiphanie de Sauternes	£7.95	£39.50
This is a delightfully fresh sweet wine, with notable honeysuckle, saffron aromas and a marmalade bite. 80% Semillon 20% Sauvignon Blanc, the grapes have been sourced from the leading Sauternes estate vineyards.
